Honda Recognizes Sales Consultant Thomas Dulaney Jr., From David Hobbs Honda, With Platinum-Level Honors

Glendale, WI, February 14th, 2020 – Thomas Dulaney Jr., of David Hobbs Honda, located at 6100 N Green Bay Ave., Glendale WI, has earned elite recognition from American Honda Motor Co., Inc., for achieving Platinum membership in the 2019 Council of Sales Leadership. To qualify for this elevated status, Dulaney provided exceptional sales solutions and service to his customers.

Honda's prestigious Council of Sales Leadership program promotes professional excellence – in sales, customer satisfaction, and training – among the almost 16,000 sales consultants in its national dealer network. The Platinum-level recognition is a coveted distinction reserved for Honda sales consultants whose sales performance is truly exceptional. Dulaney was one of only 156 to earn Platinum membership across the Nation.

"It's not just the sheer volume of customers that you help," said Director of Operations, Darrin Roth, "but it's the manner in which you do it. You always represent the utmost, knowledgeable professional with your clients, regardless of their stature or means. They are always treated well."

Dulaney has achieved membership in the Honda Council of Sales Leadership for the 5th time. He has served Honda customers since 2014 at David Hobbs Honda.
